

George Holmes graduated from Millsaps College in 1980 and then from Univ. of MS Law School in 1985 after an internship with the MS Attorney General's Office, Criminal Division. George was in solo private practice from 1986 until November 2006 when he took a position as a staff attorney with the then Mississippi Office of Indigent Appeals, becoming deputy director in 2008. In 2011, after the implementation of the State Public Defender's Office, George became the Director of the Indigent Appeals Division.